

The Fundamentals of Nursing and Administration Department in collaboration with the Community Health Department faculty, students, and staff conducted a community extension service in Sumayil on 21 April 2011.

Nursing students giving health teaching to the young father about cholesterol, its effect to health and how to prevent cardiovascular diseases.

Blood sugar test station. One of the community leaders had his blood sugar checked.

Fundamentals of Nursing and Administration faculty and students during the preparation of exhibit.

The College of Nursing faculty and staff joined and supported the Omani Women's Day celebration on 19 October 2011. The theme of the event was - Healthy Bones- Preventing osteoporosis, a silent emerging disease among Omani women.

The guest of honor Mrs. Shakoor bint Mohammed Al Ghamariyah , the chairperson of Omani Women Association—Muscat, graced the opening of the exhibition. The event was also participated by the Omani women in the the different communities in Muscat.

Dr. Samira Marrof Ahmad, HOD of Community and mental Health Department, presented the plaque of appreciation to the guest of honor. Mrs. Samira was assisted by Mrs. Eman Shelleh.