

Jokha Khalifa Al Hosni

Jokha Al Hosni is a senior instructor at the Centre for Preparatory Studies (CPS) at SQU. She has been working in the CPS since 2010. She has an MS (Master of Science) in curriculum and instruction from Purdue University, USA. She received the Best Researcher Award on the SQU Open Day in May 2018. Her research interests include curriculum design, assessment and blended learning.

- Al Hosni, J. & Al Dhahli, W. (2021). Undergraduate Students' Attitudes towards Online Language Classes during the Covid-19 Pandemic: Are Students Thriving or Surviving? Journal of English Language Teaching and Applied Linguistics, 3 (10), 16-31
- Al Hosni, J. (2017). New Perspective on Portfolios in EFL Classrooms: Portfolio as an autobiographical text. Studies in English Language Teaching Journal, 5 (4), 771-780, SCHOLINK INC.
- Al Hosni, J. (2017). No-hands up Approach in ELT: Thumps up or down? Humanising Language Teaching, 19 (6)
- Al Dhahli, W. & Al Hosni, J. (2016). The Use of Office Hours in the English Foundation Program: Teachers' and Students' Perceptions. Language Centre Forum 2016, 73-81
- Al Hosni, J. (2016). The Power of Image in English Language Teaching. Journal of Teaching English for Specific and Academic Purposes, 4 (1), 229-235
- Al Hosni, J. (2015). Attention Span in ESL College Freshmen Classrooms: Revisiting Class Activities and Gender as Determinants. Proceedings from: 8th International Conference of Education, Research and Innovation. Saville, Spain: iated Digital Library
- Al Hosni, J. K. (2015). Globalization and the Linguistic Imperialism of the English Language. Arab World English Journal (AWEJ), 6, (1), 298-308
- Al Hosni, J. & Al Rawahi, A. (2015). Once upon a Time in the Language Classroom: The Digital Storytelling Era. Language Centre Forum 2015, 31-39
- Al Hosni, J. (2013). ESL Online Courses: A New Space for Redefining Social Identities. INTESOL Journal, 10 (1), 28-38

Animated Shorts in Language Classes: Why & How? at Oman 21st International English Language Teaching Virtual Conference, October 2021

Undergraduate Students' Attitudes towards Online Language Classes during the COVID-19 Pandemic: Are Students Thriving or Surviving? at Oman 21st International English Language Teaching Virtual Conference, October 2021

Creating Infographics for Teaching & Learning Purposes, Centre for Excellence in Teaching & Learning(CETL), SQU, March 2019

Create Infographics for Learning, at the event of Highlighting Change: Teaching & Learning at SQU symposium, held by the Centre of Excellence in Teaching & Learning and Risk Management Office, November 2018

Translation Apps: A blessing or a hindrance? at Oman 18th International English Language Teaching Conference, April 2018 (Joint presentation with Ahlam Al Rawahi)

Using Comics in the Classroom: Unlocking the potential, at Oman 17th International English Language Teaching Conference, April 2017 (Joint presentation with Ahlam Al Rawahi)

Investigating the Language Barrier to the Learning of Mathematics, at Center for Preparatory Studies, SQU, April 2017 (Joint presentation with Ahlam Al Rawahi)

Using Infographics in ELT to Enhance Comprehension and Memory Retention, at Oman 16th International English Language Teaching Conference, April 2016

Attention Span in College Freshmen Classrooms: Revisiting class activities and gender as determinants (Online presentation), at the 8th International Conference of Education, Research and Innovation (ICERI2015) held in Seville, Spain, November 2015

Extensive Listening, Creating Video-based quizzes, at Center for Preparatory Studies, SQU, November 2015

Comic in the classroom: Unlocking the potential, at Aysha Um AL Mo'meneen School (grades 11-12) in Smail, Al Dakhilya Governate/ April 2015 (Joint presentation with Ahlam Al Rawahi)

The Use of Office Hours in the English Foundation Program, at Oman 15th International English Language Teaching Conference, April 2015 (Joint presentation with Wafa Al Dhahli)

Comics in Language classes: Unlocking the potential, at Center for Preparatory Studies, SQU, March 2015 (Joint presentation with Ahlam Al Rawahi)

Reciprocal Teaching in Reading Classes: Challenges and pathways, at Oman 14th International English Language Teaching Conference, May 2014