

Dr.Maha AL Jabri

Consultant Family Medicine & Public Health physician with extensive experience in comprehensive clinical care, women's health services, medical education, and healthcare leadership. Proven track record in undergraduate and postgraduate teaching, examinations coordination, and competency-based assessment. Actively leads clinical service quality improvement initiatives and accreditation readiness, with strong engagement in community and public health activities.

Place your photo here

(optional-please remove it if it is not used)

- 2020 – Present

Consultant – Family Medicine & Public Health
Sultan Qaboos University Hospital (SQUH),
University Medical City – Muscat, Oman

Providing comprehensive primary care with a focus on chronic disease management and women's health. Leading clinical service quality improvement initiatives, contributing to accreditation standards, and participating in departmental and hospital committees. Actively involved in undergraduate and postgraduate teaching, resident supervision, and clinical assessment.

- 2019 – 2020

Women's Health Fellow
University of Toronto & Affiliated Teaching Hospitals
– Toronto, Canada

Completed advanced fellowship training in women's health, with expertise in gynecological care, contraception counseling, menstrual disorders, and preventive women's health. Participated in clinical care, teaching activities, and academic programs.