PROFILE

I am a lecturer at Sultan Qaboos University, specializing in Maternal and Child Health Nursing., I hold a Bachelor's and Master's degree in Nursing from the University of Jordan, with a strong academic foundation in maternal, pediatric, and community health. I have extensive clinical experience in maternity and pediatric units, which informs my teaching and supports the integration of theory into practice. My expertise includes clinical instruction, simulation-based learning, and academic advising. My research focuses on women's health, child health, and community health promotion. I am a certified instructor in emergency response and CPR, and I actively serve on university and national health committees. I am committed to advancing nursing education through teaching, mentorship, and scholarly engagement.
